Got Talent?

The HR Series: Finding It, Keeping It and Knowing The Rules

The most important asset in any business is the people behind it. Having the best employees can have a profound outcome on an organization's goals and objectives. There is a big difference between having an employee that is a "real go-getter" verses an employee that is failing to reach their full potential.

The three part series will be delivered by Marilyn Owston, CHRP, CMC, who is the owner and President of TrendLine Consulting Services in Thunder Bay. Her involvement as a manager in the service sector for sixteen years lends a practical dimension to both the workshop material and presentation. Marilyn has delivered hundreds of well-received workshops and seminars on a variety of human resources topics including recruitment and selection, performance management, team development, and human rights in employment.

The series will include:

When: October 6th, 13th, and 27th (note: skips a week). All sessions are from 11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Where: Innovation Centre Training Lab, 1294 Balmoral St. 2nd Floor, Thunder Bay

Cost: $65 for all 3 sessions
$25 per session

Includes Lunch and HST

Great New Products

Small Camera/iPhone Stabilizer - Cinevate

We got wind that Dennis and his crew over at Cinevate were up to something special in early January. We had a sneak peak at this mystery product that really amazed us but had to keep quiet. We now have the green light to discuss this exciting product.

New Look and New Content On Our Website

Come check out our newly renovated website! Candy and her team at Sencia has been working really hard to update and modernize our website. Please check it out here and give us your feedback on what you think by Twitter, Facebook, or Email.

We have also added a large Social Media section to our website for those learning more about a particular social media application or wish to get a few new ideas on how to promote your company. A great place to start is The Powers of Social Media page that provides an introduction and has links to other articles. Please check back often because this page is a living document as in it will constantly be updated like the rest of the Information Hub.

Online Tools

Create Online Surveys Free

Have you been using SurveyMonkey or another online survey tool to conduct community surveys? A major competitor has jumped to the foreground, and may be worth a closer look. On July 6, LimeSurvey.com released version 1.90 of its online survey tool, which can be downloaded here for free! LimeSurvey not only costs less than other online survey tools, but has a number of powerful logic algorithms and statistical analysis tools that enhance its interactivity and usefulness. Based on open source software, LimeSurvey has been around in various forms since 2003, but appears to have made a major leap forward with this latest version of its software. Interested? Go-to-Market Targeting: Know the Market and Whether It Cares, Corien Kershey

"If one does not know to which port one is sailing, no wind is favourable."

By Lucius Annaeus Seneca | July, 2010

The basic logic of the strategic alliance -- a joint venture between two companies -- is often irresistible: It's difficult to break into new markets, and a partnership can bring instant access to new customers. "If I move into a market myself, it could take years," says Gene Slowinski, director of strategic alliance research at the Rutgers Graduate School of Management and a partner at Alliance Management Group of Gladstone, New Jersey. "If I do it with a partner, it could take months."
